

Hotels and Establishments

All of our Ultimate Concierge travel publications are distributed at no cost to you or your organization. We provide our magazines to individuals, hotels leisure/recreational centres, offices and other establishments. Essentially, everyone that is interested in receiving an issue is welcome to it.

If you would like to be added to our current distribution schedule, please fill out the following web based form, and our Distribution Manager, Ben, will contact you to inform you about the relevant dates and methods of delivery for your guides.

New editions of each of our publications will be available every three months, and we will be delighted to promptly deliver these to your chosen location.

If you are a hotel, we will provide your establishment with enough copies of our guides for you to position one in each of your rooms (the most beneficial method of display for your guests) and will supply enough additional copies for the communal areas of your hotel where you provide public comfort and relaxation areas such as reception/lounge areas, and bars, etc.

We will also provide you with an abundance of extra copies of our publications so that whilst your housekeeping staff are refreshing your rooms, they will have more than enough magazines to replenish copies that may have been removed by your guests upon their check out.

Please note that in all of our publications we include detachable business cards with our web address. All of our guides are available to be viewed online, using a format that still maintains that tactile magazine feel and there is also a PDF version that is available to download. With these online options, some of your guests may decide to leave our physical guides behind on their departure, leaving them for your next guest to enjoy.

And don't worry—stock control, deliveries, etc. will be executed in a way that involves a minimum amount of work and effort from your hotel and staff. All you will have to do is distribute them to your rooms whilst doing your normal housekeeping.

Our luxurious guides are printed using eco friendly Xgsm high quality paper (will need to add technical information), which may not mean that much to you, but to your guests and customers it means that our guides are of exceptional quality. Constructed from velvety, heavyweight paper with a matt finish, no matter how much they are handled they will never have fingerprints, so when your new guests check into their rooms, our magazines will always look as good as new.

This is an amazing opportunity to enhance your guests' visit at no additional cost to your organization, which in this current economic climate will add free, tangible value to your establishment.

The reaction of your guests when they discover our stylish guides that reflect and appeal to their stature and lifestyles will be extraordinary. Whilst providing them with relevant, quality, well-researched information about ways to enhance their stay in our wonderful city, information which is not currently available in any other existing publication, our magazines will add greater value to those gifts placed in rooms to welcome new guests such as chocolates on pillows or champagne/fruit baskets.

Providing your guests with our guides creates a win/win situation for you and your customers, giving them fresh, informative, accurate information about subjects that will appeal to them and are in keeping with their lifestyle. Who said there is no such thing as a free lunch?
